ARTICLE I: NAME AND JURISDICTION

Section 1: Name

- i. The name of the corporation shall be the United States of America Cricket Association, Inc. (herein after referred to as "USACA" or "the Association").
- ii. USACA may establish such acronyms or abbreviations as may be appropriate for its business use, and may establish logos, service marks or trademarks as may be appropriate to further its purposes, mission, recognition and goals.
- iii. Persons or organizations may not use the name, initials, logos or trademarks of the Association except with written consent of the Association.
- iv. The jurisdiction of USACA shall comprise all cricket leagues, clubs and cricket organizations in the United States of America subscribing to this constitution.

Section 2: Logo

The logo and name of the Association are registered with the United States Patent and Trademark Office. No one may use the name or initials of the Association or any of its logos except as provided under this Constitution or with the express written consent of the Association.

Section 3: Not-For-Profit Status

- i. USACA shall be a not-for-profit corporation incorporated and licensed pursuant to the laws of the State of New York. USACA shall be operated for charitable and educational purposes, and shall have as its purpose, to foster national and international competition through the sport of cricket.
- ii. The Association shall operate consistent with, and shall maintain a tax-exempt status in accordance with section 501 [c] [3] of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States of America.

Section 4: USACA shall seek to maintain recognition by the International Cricket Council (ICC) as the national governing body for the sport of cricket in the United States of America. In furtherance of that purpose, USACA shall comply with all such requirements, for continued recognition as a national governing body set forth by the ICC, and as such requirements are promulgated or revised from time to time. In fulfilling those requirements USACA shall:

- i. Be autonomous in the governance of the sport of cricket in the United States of America, by independently determining and controlling all matters central to such governance, and shall not delegate its governance or control, and shall be free from outside restraint.

- ii. Maintain the managerial and financial competence and capability to establish national goals for cricket relating to the development and well being of the sport. To implement and administer plans for the attainment of those goals, and to execute its obligations as the national governing body for the sport of cricket in the United States of America.
- iii. To maintain and engender regular communications between USACA and all member organizations.
- iv. Provide for organizational, independent and honorary membership.
- v. Ensure that it's Executive Board (hereinafter referred to as "the Board") and any other governance body implements the established criteria and election procedures as outlined within the constitution and By-Laws of USACA.
- vi. Be governed by an Executive Board whose members are elected without regard to race, color, religion, national origin or gender.
- vii. Provide an equal opportunity to athletes, coaches, trainers, managers, administrators, and officials to participate in cricket competitions without discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin or gender.
- viii. Provide procedures for the prompt and equitable resolution of grievances filed by its members.
- ix. Provide fair notice and an opportunity for a hearing to any athlete, coach, trainer, manager, administrator or official in accordance with the provisions provided in this constitution and any By-Laws of USACA.

ARTICLE II: OBJECTIVES AND FUNCTIONS NAME AND JURISDICTION

Section 1: The objectives and function of the Association among others to wit are:

- i. To promote, encourage, foster and develop interest in and knowledge of the game of cricket throughout the United States of America.
- ii. To encourage and assist in promoting, administering and hosting cricket games from various states, regions, zones and areas of the United States of America.
- iii. To liaise with, make contacts with and sign agreements with any federal, state, municipal, city or regional governing bodies or with the ICC or other international bodies on matters pertaining to cricket in the USA.
- iv. To foster, encourage and develop the highest standards of officiating at all levels of cricket through the introduction of formal training and qualifications of coaches, umpires and scorers.
- v. To foster the development of the sport at all levels including youth and women's cricket.

- vi. To develop and strengthen participating teams representing the United States at regional and international tournaments and events.
- vii. To insure that all cricket matches organized by or under the auspices of USACA are conducted in accordance with the Laws of Cricket, the traditions and spirit of the game, and such rules and regulations promulgated by the ICC that apply to local, regional and international cricket.
- viii. Provide funding to promote the development of cricket within the regions.
- ix. To perform such actions as USACA deems necessary or conducive to the promotion and development of cricket in the USA and are in accordance with any development program instituted by ICC.
- x. To own, lease land, and other property for the purpose of developing cricket grounds, as well as cricket facilities.

- xiii. Formulate committees and programs to train coaches, umpires, scorers and develop young players.
- xiv. Procure the funds, equipment and facilities necessary to develop cricket within the regions.

Section 2: The Board may delegate other duties or responsibilities to the Region Administrations consistent with the goals and objectives of the Association.

Section 3: Failure of any region to implement, promote, develop and maintain an active youth and women cricket program shall result in the loss of funding from USACA and the right to participate in USACA sponsored events or any other sanctions as outlined in this Constitution.

Section 4: Recall of Regional Representative

- i. A Regional Representative may be removed from the Board for malfeasance, incompetence, tardiness, and any other reason which the board deems to be contrary to the goals and objectives of USACA.
- ii. Any motion to recall a Regional Representative must be approved by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of that Regional Administration.
- iii. A regional representative who resides outside the USA or the boundaries of his/her region shall automatically forfeit his/her seat on the Board.

ARTICLE XV: VACANCIES

Section 1: A member's position on the Board will be declared vacant upon his/her resignation, removal, incapacity, relocation, disability or death.

Section 2: Resignation

A member may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Executive Secretary. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 3: Removal

- i. The Board may remove any member of the Board for malfeasance, incompetence, tardiness, and any other reason, which the Board deems to be contrary to the goals and objectives of USACA.

- ii. Members may also be removed from the Board if they fail to attend in person more than one-half (1/2) of the regular meetings of the Board during any twelve (12) month period, unless they are able to demonstrate to the other members of the Board that the presence of exigent circumstances caused and excused the absences.
- iii. Any motion to remove a member of the Board must be approved by a 2/3 majority of the members of the Regional Administrations.

Section 4: Filling Vacancies

- i. Any vacancy on the Board, except that of a Regional Representative, shall be filled by appointment by the members of the Board.
- ii. Any Regional Representative vacancy on the Board shall only be filled by appointment from the respective Regional Administration.
- iii. Any officer elected or appointed to fill a vacancy on the Board or on a Regional Administration, shall not begin a new term but shall serve the unexpired term of his or her predecessor.

ARTICLE XVI: INDEMNIFICATION

USACA shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless each member of the Board from and against all claims, charges and expenses which he/she incurs as a result of any action or lawsuit brought against the Board member or Officer, arising out of the performance of his or her duties in USACA, unless such claims, charges and expenses were caused by fraud, dishonesty, gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct on the part of said Director or Officer.

ARTICLE XVII: CONFLICT OF INTEREST

If any member of the Board, officer, committee or task force member has a financial interest in any contract or transaction involving USACA, and that individual is in a position to influence a determination with regard to the contract, transaction or business affair, such individual shall:

- i. Disclose the conflict of interest.
- ii. Not participate in the evaluation of the contract, transaction or business affair and not vote on the contract, transaction or business affair.

ARTICLE XVIII: COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

Section 1: Any member of USACA may file a complaint pertaining to any matter within the cognizance of the Association.

Section 2: Jurisdiction

Any member of the USACA, by reason of membership, agrees to be subject to these complaint procedures and agrees to be bound by any decision rendered pursuant to these complaint procedures.

Section 3:

Manner of Filing

The complainant shall file a written or electronic complaint with the Executive Secretary, providing such filing can be verified. The complaint shall set forth in clear and concise language, preferably in numbered paragraphs:

- i. The alleged violation, grievance, denial or threat to deny, and, the remedy requested thereof;
- ii. The complainant must sign and date the complaint, retaining any proof of such filing;
- iii. A complaint filed by an individual shall be accompanied with a $150.00 filing fee in the form of a certified bank check, money order or wire-transfer of funds made payable to USACA. A complaint filed by an organization shall be accompanied with a $300.00 filing fee in the form of a certified bank check, money order or wire-transfer of funds made payable to USACA;
- iv. The complainant may request that the filing fee be reduced or waived for reasons of significant financial hardship. If such request is made, the Board shall determine whether or not to reduce or waive the filing fee;
- v. If a complaint is upheld, the filing fee shall be returned to the complainant by USACA. All other expenses incurred in the process of filing the complaint, shall remain the responsibility of the complainant;
- vi. To be valid a complaint must be filed within fourteen (14) days of the occurrence of the alleged violation or grievance;
- vii. The Board shall generally administer and oversee all administrative grievances and complaints and shall ensure that all properly filed complaints are heard in a timely, fair and impartial manner;
- viii. A decision shall be determined by a majority of the Board and shall be in writing. The Board's decision shall be binding and final except as overturned by the Appeals Committee.

Section 4:

Hearing Procedure

In all hearings conducted under these bylaws, the parties shall be accorded:

- i. Notice of the specific charges or alleged violations in writing and possible consequences if the charges are found to be true;
- ii. Reasonable time between receipt of the notice of charges and the hearing within which to prepare a defense;
- iii. The right to have the hearing conducted at a time and place so as to make it practicable for the person charged to attend;
- iv. A hearing before a disinterested and impartial body of fact-finders;

Code of Ethics

The United States of America Cricket Association (hereinafter "USACA") executive members and other committee members are governed by such regulatory documents as the Constitution and By-Laws. In addition, this duty carries with it an obligation to perform with fairness, equality, transparency and objectivity through an overriding sense of integrity.

USACA recognizes that the Executive and Regional Administration members and other committee members are elected or appointed to their positions because the members of USACA have enough confidence in them to perform their jobs within the ambit of the goals and objectives of USACA. However, the responsibility of accepting positions must have some guidelines. It is to this end that all directors, officers and committee members adhere to the Code of Ethics outlined below.

The following principles set out the ethical standards with which USACA's leadership shall abide. All committee members and officials shall at all times:

1. Implement the Association's Constitution, By-Laws, Regulations and policies so that the highest possible standards of honesty, fairness, and equality are achieved and maintained.
2. Cooperate with the Association's organizers, officials and other administrators in carrying out the Association's duty with utmost efficiency.
3. Know and understand the Constitution, By-Laws, and other policies governing USACA.
4. Make financial and other decisions that are in the best interest of USACA.
5. Report any unethical practice of another member to USACA.
6. Not discriminate against clubs or any individual member thereof on the basis of race, color, ethnicity, gender, national origin, religious belief or otherwise.
7. Never use the assets, information or resources of USACA for personal benefits or for the benefit of their respective leagues or clubs.
8. Ensure that all transactions are handled honestly and recorded accurately.
9. Recognize and fully respect the rights of the member clubs to make their own decisions.
10. Take a proactive stance in attempting to rectify any situations where the Constitution, By-Laws, Code of Ethics has been violated.
11. Refrain from knowingly using or being a party to improper practices that are detrimental to the Association and which violates USACA's policies.
12. Refrain from intentionally spreading false or misleading information, whether written, spoken or implied.
13. Provide openness, transparency and full disclosure to all members on matters pertaining to USACA.
14. Recognize that even the appearance of misconduct or impropriety can be very damaging to the reputation USACA and act accordingly.

Any Director, Officer, Committee member who is found to have contravened the Code of Ethics may be subject to disciplinary measures as set forth in the Constitution.

This Code of Ethics in no way supersedes the Constitution but serves to augment it.
